

Annual Small and Minority Business Conference

Small Business
PARTNERS FOR PROSPERITY

GRAND HYATT SEATTLE

ACCESSING THE NEW ECONOMY READY. SET. GO.

Friday, May 21, 2010

The economic recovery is creating opportunity for business owners and entrepreneurs. Thriving small and minority businesses are seen as essential in the new regional economy, but how do they find these opportunities and capital? This conference provides resources and guidance for how to tap into the economic power. All corporations, business, nonprofit and government professionals are encouraged to attend!

- Experience educational panels
- Engage with regional business leaders
- Find business resources and partnering opportunities
- Join in effective networking
- Meet government officials and corporate leaders
